

Election Season in Israel

*A Special Adult Study Group
Led by Rabbi Noah Fabricant and Morah Anat Katzir*

On Tuesday, April 9, 2019, citizens of Israel will vote for a totally new government—every seat in the Knesset (parliament) and the prime ministership are up for grabs.

Between now and then, it's campaign season. More than a dozen different parties will be fighting for their vision of Israel's future. Old battles and alliances will be revisited. New leaders will emerge.

Rabbi Noah and Morah Anat will get this group up to speed on Israel's political system, the parties, and major candidates. Together we'll study polls, campaign ads, breaking news, and more. And we'll discuss the consequences of this election for Israel and whole Jewish world.

Study Group Dates

Wednesday, January 30
Sunday, February 10
Wednesday, February 20
Sunday, March 3
Sunday, March 17
Wednesday, March 27
Sunday, April 7
Sunday, April 14

Wednesday sessions

↳ 7:30-8:30 p.m.

Sunday sessions

↳ 10:00-11:00 a.m.

(During Religious School!
Join us, parents!)

All meetings at Temple Beth Or

Interested in politics? Curious about Israel? Don't miss these sessions!

